OBJECTIVES (Description of the item)	Guiding Principles as outlined in the WTGC TOR	Priority	ACTION (Description)	ACTION (Description)	TIMELINE (start-finish)	STATUS (Comp. / Incomp.)	NOTES
Respect for the trail development process	• Stewardship • Public education	Low	• promote the process • costs will come from City to implement • resources from other sources • rogue trail development (plan to address)	• promote the process • costs will come from City to implement • resources from other sources • rogue trail development (plan to address)			Suggest forming a task force to work on this in between meeting dates.
Trail use etiquette	• Respectful use of the Whitehorse trails • Public education • Stewardship • Promotion of trail network	High	• review existing rules, regulations and accepted practices and come up with an agreed upon City endorsed set of rules & regulations. (respect for the environment)	• review existing rules, regulations and accepted practices and come up with an agreed upon City endorsed set of rules & regulations. (respect for the environment)	June 2015 – Tentative		Examine partnerships. Develop a task force to review this objective.
Trail condition monitoring (safety, sustainability)	• Respectful use of the Whitehorse trails • Public education • Stewardship	Medium	• develop a public reporting mechanism so public can describe and locate trail issues. • trail management (use of trails in appropriate conditions, etc.) Feedback from the public to the City.	• develop a public reporting mechanism so public can describe and locate trail issues. • trail management (use of trails in appropriate conditions, etc.) Feedback from the public to the City.			Groups to assist the City with monitoring of the trails and providing feedback to the City. Work with various App providers to allow the public to communicate with the City on trail status/conditions.
Slow the spread of invasive weeds on trails	• Stewardship • Public education	Low	• have a representative of Yukon Invasive Species Council (YISC) present (or provide a presentation) to the WTGC and others on the spread of invasive weeds. • discuss ways to minimize the spread of invasive weeds on trails.	• have a representative of Yukon Invasive Species Council (YISC) present (or provide a presentation) to the WTGC and others on the spread of invasive weeds. • discuss ways to minimize the spread of invasive weeds on trails.			City works with Yukon Invasive Species Council to assist with the promotion.
Implementation of Trail Plan.	• Stewardship • Public education • Promotion of trail network • Respectful use of the Whitehorse trails	Medium	• yearly updates on implementation • assessing the trail plan implementation and tracking of implementation process. • success indicators • regular monitoring, tracking of trail conditions	• yearly updates on implementation • assessing the trail plan implementation and tracking of implementation process. • success indicators • regular monitoring, tracking of trail conditions			Annual report to Council and the public on progress of the implementation.
First emergency response on trails	• Stewardship • Public education	Low	• EMS will not respond off road, ability for the community to raise awareness and provide a lobby to allow for this service.	• EMS will not respond off road, ability for the community to raise awareness and provide a lobby to allow for this service.			Work with EMS.
Trail Mapping	• Public education • Promotion of trail network • Respectful use of the Whitehorse trails	High	• to develop a map available to the public via linkages to existing apps and data. • platform varied • usable by all • EMS accessibility • consistent data information • one stop shop	• to develop a map available to the public via linkages to existing apps and data. • platform varied • usable by all • EMS accessibility • consistent data information • one stop shop	April 2015		City GIS specialist to provide data.
Public Education	• Public education • Respectful use of the Whitehorse trails	High	• outreach with the community • work bees and celebrate trail day 2 times per year • get people out and using the trails • celebrating the positive aspects of the work that is currently being done by trail stewards.	• outreach with the community • work bees and celebrate trail day 2 times per year • get people out and using the trails • celebrating the positive aspects of the work that is currently being done by trail stewards.	May 2015 - Tentative		Stewardship opportunities.