

Draft walking map for Yukon River Corridor Trail

Orange lines: Approximate Trail
Yellow lines, with question mark: trail route to be determined
Distances are in km and approximate

To make a Yukon River Corridor Trail: first identify the known pieces; then identify some route that could work; then try to make each piece as interesting a walk as possible.

Map created for whitehorsetwalks.com, June 17, 2012.
Working to help build a stronger walking community in Whitehorse,

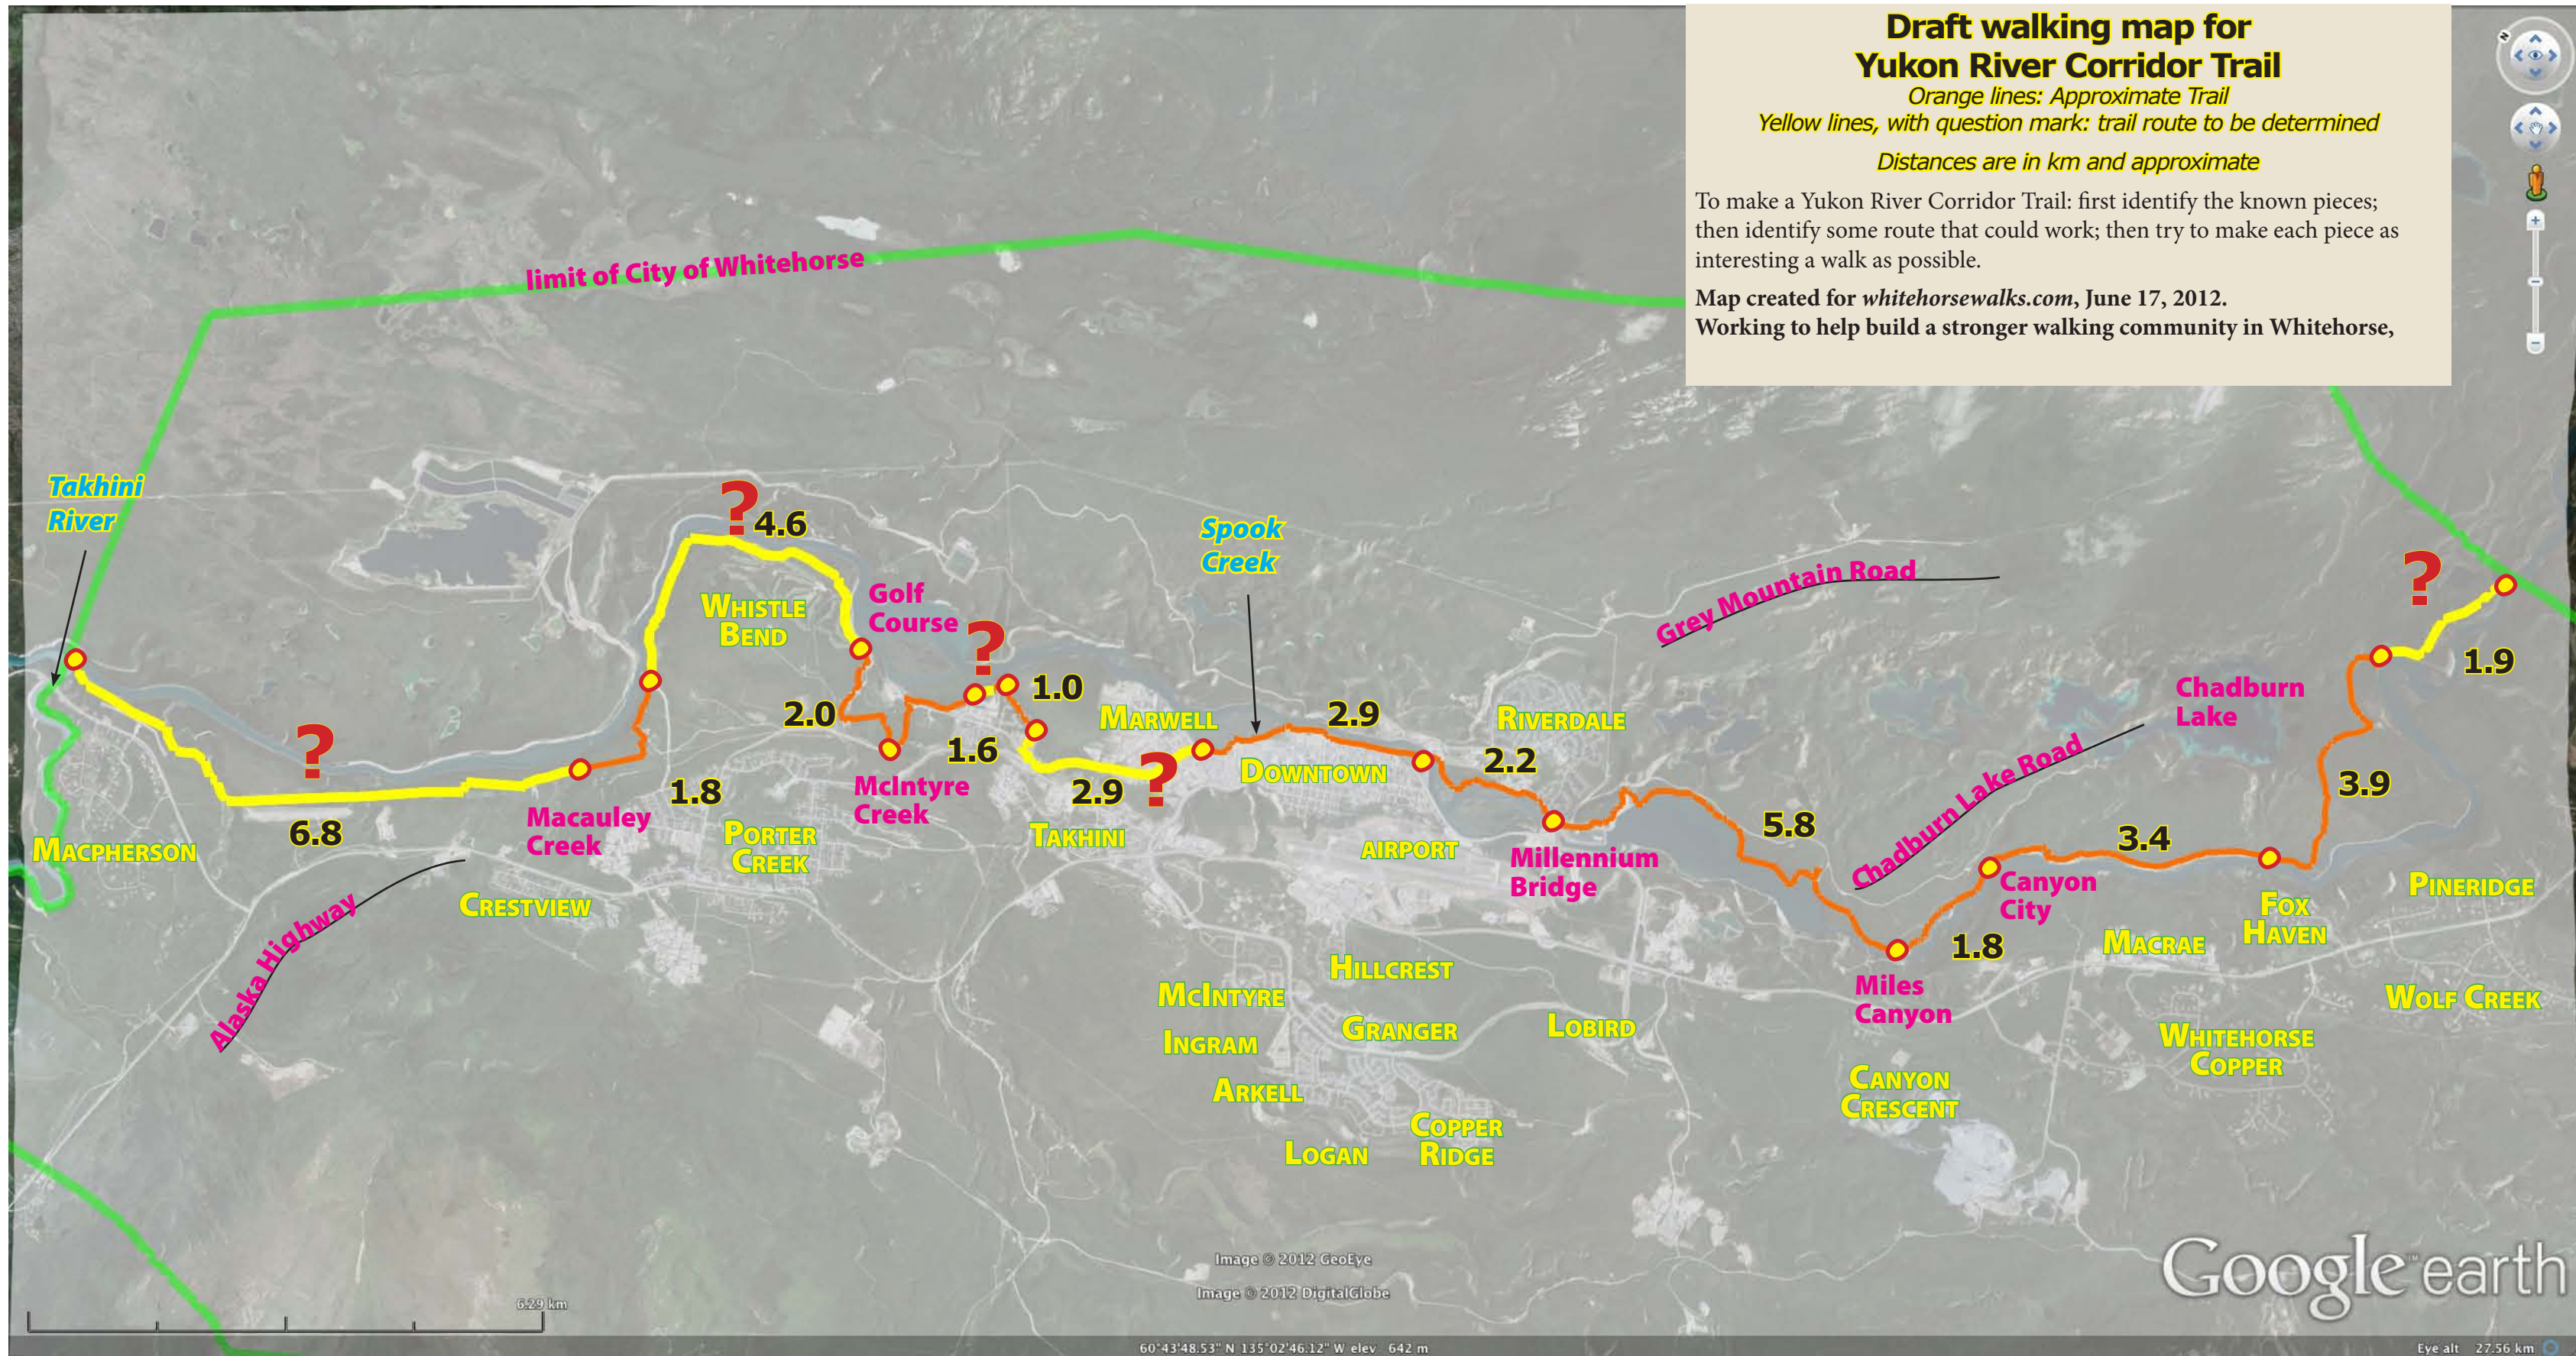

Image © 2012 GeoEye
Image © 2012 DigitalGlobe

Google earth

60°43'48.53" N 135°02'46.12" W elev. 642 m

Eye alt 27.56 km